

DATA PROTECTION POLICY

1. Each time you use this website you are subject to the data protection policy applicable at that time. You should read this every time you visit and use the website in order to ensure that you agree with the content.
2. Any personal data that you provide will be stored in a data file, for which FASHION RETAIL, S.A. ("FASHION RETAIL") will be responsible, in order to carry out the following:
 - i. The text of every purchase contract is being saved by us. Additionally we send you a mail with an order confirmation and the order content. The status of every order can be checked under "my account". Additionally we send you an e-mail for every change of your delivery status. You can find our purchase conditions on our website in the current version.
 - ii. Provision of information about products of Zara.com or other Inditex Group companies (whose products relate to the home decoration, textiles, clothing and household goods sectors , as well as all accessories to the specified product sectors including cosmetic products and leather goods), including the sending of business correspondence in relation to the aforementioned products by email or through other equivalent communication methods (such as SMS). You can change your preferences relating to the receipt of these communications by logging in to the MY ACCOUNT section on this website and changing your preferences; you can sign up again in the NEWSLETTER section.
 - iii. If you choose the option to save PAYMENT INFORMATION (e.g. credit card details) you expressly accept that the data necessary for activation and execution will be processed and stored. Your card security number (CVV) will only be requested during the purchase process to enable that specific purchase; it will not be stored as PAYMENT INFORMATION.

If you agree to activate the store function your data will automatically be filled in when you make subsequent orders through this website so that they do not have to be entered for each new purchase. This agreement applies for subsequent orders.

You can change your PAYMENT INFORMATION at any time under My Account - PAYMENT INFORMATION and withdraw your consent for data to be processed and stored. FASHION RETAIL stores and processes your data in accordance with the provisions for credit and debit card confidentiality and security.

If you use the option to store PAYMENT INFORMATION you may be asked to change your password for security reasons. Please be aware that your safety whilst using the website is also dependent upon appropriate use and protection of your password.

- iv. If you provide us with the personal data of a third party you are responsible for informing the third party about use of these data and for obtaining their express consent. If you have purchased a product or a gift card, the personal data of the third party provided by you will be used for the following purposes: (a) to deliver the product in question and/or check that it has been received (b) to handle queries/suggestions relating to the product.
 - v. If you choose the "Klarna Pay after Delivery" or "Klarna Account" payment method you recognise that you must provide the additional data requested by Klarna AB and that these personal data must be processed by Fashion Retail together with the data provided by you in connection with the order, in order to transfer them to Klarna AB for independent processing of your invoice and for an identity and credit check.
3. You may prohibit the use of your personal data for all advertising, market and opinion research purposes or for individual procedures at any time, without incurring any costs other than those incurred by informing us that you wish to do so. An email communication to the following email address will be sufficient for this purpose: contact@zara.com.

4. In accordance with the Data Protection Act you are entitled to obtain information about your stored data free of charge and, if applicable, you are entitled to have details amended, blocked or deleted. Please send your request by email or post to FASHION RETAIL, S.A., with registered office at Avda. De la Diputación, Edificio Inditex, 15143 Arteixo (A Coruña), Spain, Email: contact@zara.com or to the registered address of Inditex, S.A., Avda. De la Diputación, Edificio Inditex, 15142, Arteixo (A Coruña), Spain, Email: funcionlopd@inditex.com, FAO: "Función LOPD", clearly stating your name. As administrator of the data file, FASHION RETAIL undertakes to handle your personal data confidentially and to uphold your rights of access, correction, rescission and prohibition.
5. In order to be able to fulfil the purposes in section 2, it may be necessary to make the data provided by you available to companies associated with FASHION RETAIL, such as the Inditex Group holding company [Industria de Diseño Textil, S.A. (INDITEX, S.A.)] and certain other Inditex Group companies in Spain whose activities lie in the sectors of e-commerce, home decoration, textiles, fashion and decoration products and other accessories, including cosmetic products and leather goods.
6. We instruct other companies and individuals to perform services for us (service providers) and pass on your data in this context for these purposes. Recipients of the data include, amongst others, providers of the following services: parcel delivery, letter or email distribution, customer database administration, database analysis, IT and hosting, advertising, payment processing (credit checking, identity checking, credit rating monitoring, etc.) and customer service. These service providers have access to personal information that is required for the performance of their services. However they may not use it for other purposes. Furthermore they are obligated to handle the information in accordance with this data protection policy and the relevant data protection laws.
7. The user (you) hereby confirms that the personal data provided by you are correct and that you will inform us of any changes. Losses or damages to the website or parties responsible for the website or a third party due to entry of false, inaccurate or incomplete data in the registration form is the sole responsibility of the user.

8. Cookies: By accepting the data protection policy you acknowledge the use of cookies on this website, which is described below.

Information about cookies

What are cookies?

A cookie is a small text file that is stored by a website on your computer, phone or other devices with information about your browsing behaviour on this website. Cookies are necessary to make navigation easier and more user-friendly. They do not cause any damage to your computer.

Although the general term "cookie" is used in this data protection policy, as this is the main storage method used for information on this website, "local storage" of temporary internet files in the browser will be used for the same purposes as cookies. Accordingly, all information contained in this section also applies to "local storage".

What are cookies used for on this website?

Cookies are an essential component of the functionality of this website. The main objective of our cookies is to improve your experience when navigating. For example, they help you to note your preferred settings whilst navigating and for future visits (language, country, etc.).

The information collected in cookies also enables us to optimise the website using assessments about user numbers and user profiles, and to adapt the website to the individual interests of the user, speed up the search function, etc.

From time to time, with your prior consent, we may use cookies, tags or similar applications to collect information that may appear on our website, third party websites or in another medium, based on the analysis of your navigation behaviour.

What are cookies NOT used for on this website?

We do not store any personal information like address, password, credit card details, etc. in the cookies that we use.

Who uses the information stored in the cookies?

The information stored in the cookies on our website is used exclusively by us, except for the information identified as "third party cookies" below. These are used and managed by external organisations to provide us with services that are requested by us in order to improve our services and the customer experience of our website. The most important services for which these "third party cookies" are used are the preparation of access statistics and the guarantee of payment transactions.

How can I prevent the use of cookies on this website?

If, in view of the above, you wish to avoid the use of cookies on this website you must first deactivate the use of cookies in your browser and then delete the cookies stored in your browser that are associated with the website.

This option to avoid using cookies can be used at any time.

How can I deactivate and delete cookies?

You can restrict, block or delete cookies on this website at any time by changing your browser configuration using the following instructions. Although every browser is different, cookies are usually configured in the "Settings" or "Tools" menu. You can find more information about configuration of cookies in your browser in the browser "Help" menu.

Which cookies does the website use exactly and for what purpose?

The following list details the cookies, tags or similar applications used on this website, together with information about their purpose, duration and management (by us or by third parties).
