4. HOW LONG WILL WE KEEP YOUR DATA?

The time for which we will keep your data will depend on the purposes for which we process them, as explained below:

Purpose	Time for which the data are kept
1. Customer Support	We will process your data for the time necessary to meet your request or application.
2. Marketing	We will process your data until you unsubscribe or cancel your subscription to the newsletter.
3. Analysis of usability and quality	We will process your data occasionally for the time during which we proceed to carry out a specific quality action or survey or until we anonymise your browsing data.

Notwithstanding the fact that we will process your data for the time strictly necessary to achieve the purpose in question, we will subsequently keep them duly stored and protected for the time during which liability may arise for their processing, in compliance with legislation in force from time to time. Once each of the potential actions is time-barred we will proceed to delete the personal data.

5. DO WE SHARE YOUR DATA WITH THIRD PARTIES?

To achieve the purposes mentioned in this Privacy and Cookies Policy, we must give access to your personal data to entities of the Inditex Group and to third parties that provide us with support in the services that we offer your, i.e.:

- technological service providers,
- providers of customer support related services,
- advertising and marketing related partners and service providers.

For service efficiency purposes, some of these providers are located in territories outside the European Economic Area that do not offer a level of data protection comparable to that of the European Union, as the United States of America. In such cases, we inform you that we will transfer your data with adequate safeguards and always keeping your data safe:

- Some providers are certified Privacy Shield, which certification you may consult through the following link:
<https://www.privacyshield.gov/welcome>
- With other providers, we have agreed Standard Contractual Clauses approved by the EU Commission, the content of which you may consult through the following link:

https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/data-transfers-outside-eu/model-contracts-transfer-personal-data-third-countries_en

In addition, we inform you that we need to share your data with our parent company, Industria de Diseño Textil, S.A. (Inditex, S.A.), Inditex Group holding company, for compliance with the obligations of the parent company.

6. WHAT YOUR RIGHTS ARE WHEN MAKING YOUR DATA AVAILABLE TO US

We undertake to keep your personal data confidential and to ensure that you may exercise your rights. Bearing that in mind, you may exercise your rights free of charge by writing us an e-mail to the e-mail address (dataprotection@zara.com), simply informing us of the reason for your request and the right that you wish to exercise. If we consider this necessary to be able to identify you, we may request you to provide a copy of a document evidencing your identity.

In particular, notwithstanding the purpose or legal basis we use to process your data, you have the following rights:

- To request access to your personal data that we hold.
- To request that we rectify the personal data that we hold. In any case, please take into account that, on actively making your personal data available to us through any procedure, you guarantee that they are true and accurate and you undertake to notify to us any change or modification of your data. You will be liable for any loss or damage caused to the Platform or to the person responsible for the Platform or to any third party by reporting erroneous, inaccurate or incomplete information in the forms. Please remember that, as a general rule, you must provide us only with your own data, not with those of third parties, other than to the extent otherwise permitted in this Privacy and Cookies Policy.
- To request that we erase your personal data to the extent that they are no longer necessary for the purpose for which we need to keep processing them, as we have explained above, or when we are no longer legally permitted to process them.
- To request that we cancel or limit the processing of your personal data, which entails that in certain cases you can request us to temporarily suspend the processing of the data or that we keep them longer than necessary.

If you have given us your consent to process your data for any purpose, you also have the right to withdraw such consent at any time. Some of the circumstances in which you may withdraw your consent are detailed in section 2 where we explain for which purposes we process your data.

When we are legally permitted to process your data due to your consent, as explained in section 3, you will also have the right to request the portability of your personal data. This means that you will have the right to receive the personal data that you made available to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-legible format, to be able to transmit them to another entity directly without impediments on our part.

In addition, where the processing of your data is based on our legitimate interest, you will also have the right to object to the processing of your data.

Finally, we inform you that you have the right to file a claim before the responsible data protection regulatory authority: http://ec.europa.eu/justice/article-29/structure/data-protection-authorities/index_en.htm

7. WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU PROVIDE US WITH DATA OF THIRD PARTIES?

If you provide us with personal data of third parties, you confirm that you informed them of the purposes and of the manner in which we need to process their personal data.

8. CHANGES TO THE PRIVACY AND COOKIES POLICY

We may amend the information contained in this Privacy and Cookies Policy when we consider this appropriate. Should we do so, we will notify you by various procedures through the Platform (for example, through a banner or a pop-up), or we may even send you a notice to your e-mail address when the change in question is relevant to your privacy, for you to be able to review the changes, assess them and, as the case may be, object or unsubscribe from any service or functionality. In any case, we suggest you to review this Privacy and Cookies Policy from time to time in case minor changes are made or we make any interactive improvement, taking the opportunity that you will always find it as a permanent point of information on our Website.

9. INFORMATION ON COOKIES

We use cookies and similar devices to facilitate your browsing in the Platform, understand how you interact with us and, in certain cases, to be able to show you advertisements in accordance with your browsing habits. Please read our Cookies Policy to understand with greater detail the cookies and similar devices that we use, their purpose and other information of interest.

Information on cookies

1. What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small text file that a website stores on your PC, telephone or other device, with information on your movements on that site. Cookies are necessary to facilitate browsing and make it more user-friendly, and they do not damage your computer.

While this policy uses the general term "cookie", as it is the main method for storing information used by this website, the browser's "Local Storage" space is also used for the same purposes as the cookies. Therefore, all the information included in this section is also applicable to this "Local Storage".

2. What are cookies used for on this website?

Cookies are an essential part of how our website works. The main purpose of our cookies is to improve your browsing experience. For example, they are used to remember your preferences (language, country, etc.) while browsing and on future visits.

The information collected in the cookies also enables us to improve the site by estimating numbers and patterns of use, the suitability of the website to the individual interests of the users, quicker searches, etc.

On occasion, if we have obtained your informed consent in advance, we may use cookies, tags or other similar devices to obtain information that enables us to show you, on our own website, those of third parties, or any other means, advertising based on the analysis of your browsing habits.

3. What are cookies NOT used for on this website?

We do not store sensitive personal identification information such as your address, your password, the data of your credit card or debit card, etc., in cookies we use.

4. Who does use the stored information in cookies?

The information stored in the cookies from our website is used exclusively by us, except for those identified below as "third-party cookies", which are used and managed by external entities to provide services requested by us to improve our services and the experience of the user when browsing our website. The primary services for which these "third-party cookies" are used are to obtain access statistics.

5. How can I avoid using cookies on this website?

If you prefer to avoid the use of cookies on this page, taking into account the limitations described above, you must first disable the use of cookies in your browser and then delete the cookies saved in your browser associated with this website.

You may use this option for preventing the use of cookies at any time.

6. How do I disable and prevent the use of cookies?

You may restrict, block or delete the cookies from this website at any time by changing the configuration of your browser following the steps indicated below. While settings are different in each browser, cookies are normally configured in the "Preferences" or "Tools" menu. For further details on configuring cookies in your browser, see the "Help" menu in the browser itself.

7. What specific cookies does use this website and for what purpose?

The information below shows the cookies, tags and other similar devices used by this website, together with information on the purpose, duration and management (proprietary and by third parties) of them.
